

Dr Constantin Horia Iliescu

Born on 28 02 1940 Giurgiu, district Giurgiu, Romania

Studies: Faculty of Biology, Bucharest University, 1965 - Degree

Professional - Medical assistant for Clinic Laboratory - Giurgiu, Epidemiology Centre, 1959-1961

- Research Institute for Cereals and Industrial Crops, Fundulea (1965-1984) Scientific researcher (Brider for resistance)

- Research Institute for Plant Protection, Bucharest

- General Director (in 1984)

Professional degrees :

- Doctor in Biology (1978)

- Senior Scientific Researcher First Degree (1989)

- Correspondent Member of the Romanian Academy for Agriculture and Forestry Sciences (1989)

- Associate Professor at the Agronomic Institutes Iasi, Romania

- Leader – European Cooperative Research Network and Sunflower - Studies on Common "Studies on Population

Dynamics of Pathogens and their Control" (F.A.O. Working group)

- Vice-President - Interministerial Commission for the Registration of Products of Phytosanitary Use in Romania

- Vice-President - Romanian Society of Plant Protection

Scientific activities:

- 311 Scientific works published in magazines, both in Romania and abroad

- Co-author of 9 books on sunflower cropping and pathology, in English, Spanish, Hungarian and Romanian.

- Co-author of 5 patents regarding sunflower hybrids resistant to different diseases

- Participation abroad in more than 40 scientific reunions, Congresses, Symposia in the field of agriculture

- At present Director of Research Institute of Plant Protection - Bucharest, Romania